Notice on Postponement of the Disclosure of Consolidated Financial Results for March 2020

We have decided to postpone of the disclosure of consolidated financial results for March 2020. We let you know as follows.

We sincerely apologize for the great inconvenience to our shareholders, investors, and other stakeholders.

We have decided to postpone the disclosing date of financial results, which was scheduled for Tuesday, May 12, to Thursday, May 28. Due to lockdown (the city blockade) and restrictions on expatriation accompanying the spread of new coronavirus infections, overseas subsidiaries located in Europe, the U.S. and Japan have impacts on the procedures of account settlement and auditing. In addition, every employee in each domestic branch located in specified caution prefectures works from home in principle to ensure the health and safety of our customers and employees, etc., in the view of preventing the spread of infection and maintaining the system for business continuity.

The impact of the new coronavirus infections on consolidated results will be disclosed as soon as possible.
